McFarland's BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF SAFES!

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the public to the above unequalled safeguard of property—proof against the devouring element of fire, as well as the most skilful burglar. To MERCHANTS, JEWELLERS, and BANK DIRECTORS, we would only say, examine them and the proofs, and you will be convinced of their superiority over all other manufacture.

Our business is done in a plain, straightforward way, without resorting to humbug or large talk.

Below is one of the many testimonials we are daily receiving from all parts of the country, and which speaks for itself. Messrs Pond & Hitchcock's Oil Store was situated directly under the Pearl-st House, and was totally consumed in that great fire of August 23d

NEW YORK, Aug. 29, 1853.

Messrs Wm McFarland & Co

Gents—It affords us pleasure to inform you that the Fire and Burg ar Proof Safe we purchased of you, preserved our books and papers, at the disastrous fire of the Pearl-st House, last evening, in the most perfect manner. Although it was exposed throughout the fire with burning floors, and other Safes, and directly under a broken gas-pipe, in the most intense heat, it remained true to its name, and when taken out could not even be scorched, and hardly bore the smell of fire. To any one who is in want of a superior Safe a perfect, safeguard against fire, we cheerfully recommend your manufacture, having had a personal experience of their excellence. Yours truly,

S. F. POND & HITCHCOCK.

Our Depot, where an assortment of all kinds can always be constantly on hand, is at

33 Maiden Lane,

(two doors from NASSAU STREET,)

JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA...Six cents per copy.

The proprietors of the BOSTON JOURNAL, some three years since adopted the low price cash plan in the circulation of their paper, and have met with success beyond their anticipations. Convinced that this course is the most profitable to themselves, their readers, and their advertising friends, they are determined to adhere to the system, and although the expenses of publishing a newspaper have increased enormously within a few years, the subscription and business prices of the Daily, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly and California Journal will remain the same, while no expenditure of money, time or labor will be spared to keep the Journal in advance of all its contemporaries, in every point which goes to make up a Live Newspaper of the present day.

THE DAILY JOURNAL,

Although furnished at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy, contains MORE READING MATTER than any other daily paper in Boston. It is published

Morning and Evening,

and either edition it is sure to contain the VERY LATEST NEWS received by the MAILS and TELEGRAPH up to the moment of publication. It is the determination of the proprietors to make it emphatically a live paper in every sense of the word.

A NEWSPAPER

and as such it will report and record the doings of all parties and sects. It will give full and complete reports of the sittings of the Legislature, a full and accurate Shipping List; doings at the Stock Exchange; and Money Articles from a competent source; full reports of the debates in Congress; able reports of all Lectures of interest, full and complete accounts of Public Meetings with the orations delivered, when the occasion requires, &c., &c. Indeed, the reader of the Daily Journal may be sure of finding a record of every thing of general interest which transpires at her home or abroad. By arrangements entered to establish EXTENSIVE CORRESPONDENCE, and by a liberal use of the

Magnetic Telegraph,

the Journal will at all times be in possession of the LATEST NEWS; and by the publication of a complete paper both

MORNING AND EVENING,

the proprietors are enabled to send by which leaves the city each day, thus furnishing the news not unfrequently from 12 to 24 hours in advance of those papers which print only one edition daily. The Journal is published on the CONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLE OF CYLINDER FAST-PRESS, capable of printing TWENTY THOUSAND an HOUR, and the circulation is about to require two of these presses, both of the largest size, and however large.

Every Mail and Express!

As some evidence of the success which has attended the publication of the Journal, the proprietors would state that its circulation is now more than TEN TIMES AS LARGE as it was in 1852—and more than SIX TIMES AS LARGE as in 1853—more than in any five years—and that its present rate of increase is larger than at any time during the last few years. Its present circulation: LARGER BY THOUSANDS THAN ANY DAILY EDITION OR TWO CENT PAPER PUBLISHED IN BOSTON OR NEW ENGLAND!

☞ The Journal will be mailed to subscribers at the rates mentioned above for any length of time, on receipt of the money. It has a large list of faithful carriers in all parts of Boston and adjoining cities, both Morning and Evening, and is for sale at the Periodical Depots, and at all of the large news and cigar stands on the lines of the Railroads through the New England.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisements are inserted at fair prices, in clear type, set up in handsome style, and arranged under appropriate heads, so as to attract the attention in the most prominent manner. The great value of the Journal as an advertising medium may be inferred from the fact that ALL ADVERTISEMENTS appear in both MORNING and EVENING papers without any CHANGE of position, thus securing to advertisers the benefit of two papers, at one price, and the

of any subscription paper in New England. All advertisements in the Weekly, Semi-Weekly, or California Journal, will be subject to an additional charge for each paper.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL

is published TUESDAY and FRIDAY mornings, at Four Dollars a year in advance. It contains all the leading and business matter of the Daily for three days, and is very valuable for country circulation.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL

is made up expressly for country circulation, and contains a vast amount of miscellaneous and news matter, reports of Lectures, meetings, &c. It is published every Thursday morning, at Two Dollars a year in advance, handsomely printed on good paper, with clear type. As it has long had an enviable reputation during a long series of years. Its circulation throughout New England is very large and is constantly increasing.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER

THE JOURNAL FOR CALIFORNIA

is made up prior to the sailing of each mail steamer, especially for Circulation in California, and is a welcome visitor to thousands who have left their homes in search of fortune in the Golden State. It is sent by mail, or sold at the publication office, at six cents a copy.

☞ All orders for either of the above papers should be accompanied by the cash, and addressed to the publishers,

Ladies, look at this!

Admirable Invention.

PATENT SELF HEATING

SMOOTHING IRON!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements; but females have been nearly neglected until this introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and dispatch; one cent's worth of dry charcoal supplies it all for a whole day's constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Holders and Tailors' irons are constructed upon the same principle and possess equal superiority.

full name of property, on the fallen columns of Ashdod. I find them here.

Proceeding from this early scene of the Apostle Peter's preaching and miracles, we reached the town of Ramlah on the afternoon of the same day; which, indeed is but a short distance, some three or four miles from Lydda. It is a walled town of considerable size. It was near sunset when we arrived. At the distance of half a mile from its walls there stands a lofty and lonely tower; a memorial of past ages but with a history unknown. It is an hundred and thirty feet in height; and is erected of hewn stone in successive stories, which diminish in size as they approach the top. Around it are no great distances are vaulted substructures, which will probably be found to have a connection with its history, when that history shall be ascertained. I already threw its long evening shadow; but we had time to ascend it; and in the last rays of the setting sun to witness the wide and varied prospect from its summit. It was a scene of surpassing beauty; the land of fields and gardens, of the figtree and the pomegranate, the oil we and the vine." The shepherd was returning with his flocks from the fields. The fertile territories of ancient Philistia were beneath us. The eye rested upon the "rales of Sharon, whose bloom has not yet withered. The rocky heights of the "hill country of Judea" were in sight.

On the morning of the next day, and only at a few miles distance from Ramlah, we passed in sight of the valley of Ajalon; the scene of the hard-fought battles and the stupendous miracle of Joshua. "and he said, in the sight of Israel, sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, moon in the valley of Ajalon." And it was thus, from this time onward, that almost every mountain had its Scriptural associations and interest. After a few hours travel further, we stopped again at the ancient town of Kirjath Jearim. Here also, as well as at Ramlah and Lydda, were what we supposed to be the remains of a place of early Christian worship. Situated on the side of a hill, this town is strong and imposing in its position; and has a picturesque appearance. The valleys below and the heights around are covered with groves of olives. The circumstance, that for twenty years the Ark of the Lord rested at Kirjath Jearim, gave it a peculiar interest.

We now rapidly approached the termination of our journey, or perhaps I should rather say, approached the principal object we had in view in journeying; the holy, which embodied to the Christian at least, more interesting associations than any other in the world. The hills of Jerusalem it burst upon us till, or rather connected range of hills; the hill of Zion, the hill of Moriah, the hill of Acra. But comparatively, in reference to the lofty eminences around it, it seems to be almost in a valley. So the city looking upon it, we gladly let our prospect of the expression of the Scriptures,—"the mountains round about Jerusalem." We at once beheld it over against us, surrounding it, as which is almost without and without exception. It is thickly covered with rocks. And the narrow way which winds over it, is exceedingly rough and difficult; so much so as to perplex even the activity and the camel and the experienced foot of the Syrian horses. As we passed the summit, of this difficult region, which we were a long time in reaching we came in view of the long irregular line of the city walls. We must many poor people, from the most part women, returning to their homes in the neighboring villages. They had a doleful appearance. It was now night. The shadows of evening in the valley of Jehoshaphat. We entered the city on the western side, over the hill of Zion and through the Bethlehem gate. The gate opens nearly under the massive tower of David. As I passed beneath its heavy arch, I felt that the desire of a life was accomplished. What a scene! What associations! All for lands have their history, their dreams, their associations, their greatness. But Palestine compared with all others, is emphatically the sacred land; the dwelling-place of patriarchs, prophets, apostles; the scene of visits and holy communications between heaven and earth.—Every valley is a temple; every mountain a monument. Wherever I turn my eyes, the dimness of distant history becomes actual vision. I look from my windows and my eyes rests upon the hill of Moriah, upon the site of the Temple of Solomon, upon the Mount of Olives and upon the sacred places of crucifixion.

Oh land of men of other days!
Where bards and ancient prophets trod,
The land of right! Jehovah's love,
The land of David's psalm of praise,
Land of the sons of God

And if 'tis not enough of fame,
To be the haunt of prophets,—then,
From all thy hills and rocks proclaim
One higher and more glorious name
Of Him whom all for men.

In vain, like birds on ocean's form
When tossed with a troubled sea,
In vain the soul a spirit roam,
In search of resting place or home,
Who turn away from thee.

By thee the seal of doubt is broken,
Which long to human hearts had pressed;
By thee alone the words are spoken,
Which "peace on earth" and love bestow,
And give the weary rest.

The clouds of Sinai's mount proclaim
The law that wakes the spirit's fears;
From Calvary's height Redemption's claims,
The law of love for hate's flame,
Love for the rending years.

Land of the sun! forever dear;
While o'er thy world the words impart,
Which turn to hope despairing fear;
Which dry the penitential tear,
And heal the bleeding heart.

Washington News. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows on Monday:

"The exciting scene in the Senate to-day was very great. Senator Douglas's speech is considered to have been the ablest that could be made on his side of the question, although vulgarly abused by Senators Chase and Sumner, whose replies were delivered with great power. Mr. Chase especially bore himself with transcendent splendor. I never saw a debater appear to better advantage.

Strenuous efforts are making to force the bill to a vote this week. Northern men who purpose voting for it are anxious to have it done with, and intend to avoid speaking hoping the storm will blow over soon after the measure is beyond recall.

I do not learn that Senator Seward, or any of the leading Whigs, except Mr. Smith, design participating in the debate.

It is believed by well informed gentleman here, that the anticipated coup d'etat at Madrid will occur at an early day, and that the monetary affair to so Cuba to the United States will come from the new Government of Spain within a very few months."

A correspondent from Washington writes that Mr. Benton will oppose the Nebraska bill with all his might. He says the Mexican war knock Douglas' brains out if it passes, and the South will kick him if it don't—and that every Northern man who supports it will be ruined forever."

Many a true heart that would have come back like a dove to the Ark, after its first transgression, has been frightened beyond recall by the angry look and menace, the taunt, the bitter sentry of an unforgiving soul.

John S. Sayward, Editor.

FRIDAY, FEB. 3, 1854.

☞ One of the growlers says that the city of Portland was once a very quiet, orderly and desirable place, but they took it into their head to build a great railroad, and now they are full of vants. They want a new, large and costly Hotel; they want a Market House; they want a Custom House; they want great Warehouses; they want a public Common; they want new wharves and new streets, and there is no end to their wants. All this comes from the pesky railroads!

Precisely, old fellow! A dead man don't feel any earthly wants, but the live men do, and if they have a spirit and the enterprise they will see that their wants are supplied.—We like to see a town or city like a strapping boy outgrowing his breeches at least once a month.

☞ In this mammon-worshipping age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public, before his interests. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated Chemist, Dr. J. C. Aran, whose name is now, perhaps, more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness, in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines, and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire, and rolling in wealth. But no, we found him in his laboratory, busy with his laborers, among his granules, glycerides and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which, thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business, not its prompt response in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is, that the material is costly, and he prefers in making the preparations so expensively, that the net profit is small.—American Farmer.

☞ About two hundred persons are employed in the straw manufactory at Nantucket.—Among the operatives are the daughters of some of the leading men in town. Some of the young ladies make five dollars a week at the business.

This is characteristic of Massachusetts—labor is there respectable, even female labor, and in many of the towns the wives and daughters of the wealthy thus work to add to their pin money and keep up their appearance with the needle in the binding and trimming of shoes, caps, &c. The people of Maine would be millions of dollars richer each year with a system of female labor like that in Massachusetts prevailed here.

Putnam's Monthly, February 1854.

We have received from Wm. Barlett Jr. the February number of Putnam's Magazine, of Literature, Science and Art.

It opens with Hendley's Washington finely illustrated. "Places of public Amusement is another illustrated article done up in capital style.

Its other articles are varied, able and interesting and the readers of this choice monthly will have a rich entertainment in its pages for this month.

☞ We hope that no man or woman in this city will fail to sign the remonstrance to be found at the several Bookstores against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise contemplated by the Bill forming a Territory to Nebraska, now before Congress. The woman, as well as the man, have an interest in this matter, and their opinion should be expressed and may be by remonstrance against this great wrong.

☞ There will be an extraordinary eclipse of the sun on the 26th of May next, such a one as none but the oldest inhabitants have witnessed in this vicinity. It will be similar to the great eclipse of 1806, since which there has been none resembling it, nearer than that of 1850, when eleven twelfths of the sun was obscured.

☞ A committee has been appointed in the Senate and House to count the votes for Governor.—The House have appointed the day at twelve of the clock as the time to bal ot for two candidates for governor to be sent to the Senate. These two are to be taken from the four highest voted for by the people and from them the Senate elect one.

☞ The editor of the Machias Union has been shown a May Flower or trailing arbutus which has blossomed within a few days. A lady gathered it in the bud in December and kept it in a vase of water until it has blossomed as bright and fragrant as in the glowing spring.

☞ The Erie rioters have torn up the work on the railroad, made by the U. S. Marshal, under orders from Washington. If they prove themselves stronger than the U. S. government they will prove the government too weak for the exigencies of the times.

☞ Gen. Sam Houston has recently delivered a lecture in Providence R. I. on the subject of the American Indians. He is to lecture in Lowell, Portland and perhaps in this city.

☞ The Kennebec river at Bath was frozen over by the cold of last week so that people crossed upon the ice. The ice has since broken up and passed off.

☞ We return our thanks to Hon. Hannibal Hamlin U. S. Senator for public documents recently received, from him. Also to the editor of the State of Maine for his attentions.

☞ A bill has been introduced into the Legislature of Kentucky to prohibit the sale of slaves back in under the age of five years, separate from their mothers.

☞ The measles prevails extensively at Lewiston Falls. One editor there has nine children sick with this disease.

☞ There will be a public debate before the Mechanics Association on this evening.

If one-half the people know what the other said of them, friendship would be entirely unknown.

☞ While some boys were "coasting" on Third street last Wednesday, in company with a little girl, the latter had her arm broken by some accident.

Nebraska.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

We like your suggestions of yesterday, that women should affix their names to the remonstrances against this nefarious bill, this diabolical piece of villany contemplated by our public servants at Washington. "Servants," we shall soon see whether they are or not, or whether they are mean contemptible, swindling, thieving tyrants, watching for every opportunity to advance their own pitiful interests, by wrenching from us our dearest rights. Language totters under the burden when we would represent the unutterable meanness, and sneakingness of this attempt. Its gigantic and unparalleled atrocity cowers and pales before its inexplicable littleness. "All honorable men" surely, are our distinguished Senators! Oh, for some Junius to step forth and shrivel their names and reputations by his withering powers of sarcasm, into the same dimensions that their souls all together now fill!

And will our women? there is anything, even more base, they can do, to help their husbands and brothers put a stop to this rascally transaction, refuse? Even if they are not for the thing itself, and are willing to see our country dragged down to the depth of debasement to which the passage of this bill would sink her, and wallowing in the mire of obsequiousness to slavery, (we beg a thousand pardons for even supposing the case. We know such a thing cannot be,) will they not, rejoice in the opportunity to express a noble, hearty indignation of such sneaking, low-minded villiany? Will not the "eloquent blood" mantling their faces, hasten to express itself by the simple act of writing their names? We know there is quite a common objection among ladies to signing petitions to Congress, &c, we wish we had the power to understand and analyze all such objections, and time to controvert them. Is it that they do not think it womanly, to enter, even so far, into politics? But when the "politician," if they chose so to style this matter, assume so decidedly a moral, a humane, a religious aspect, when they strike at the very foundation of our domestic sanctities, and our dearest rights, namely, our republican institutions, and threaten to make our noble country, step by step, inch by inch, a loathsome slave-market, will they persist in overlooking, all those aspects, and with jaundiced eye, magnifying the "political" above everything else? Well, call it "political." What then? We appeal to our Christian moralists, our Christian reformers, our Christian ministers, our Christian women, to step forward, and with firm, determined hand, to snatch it out of the abyss of politics, and put it into the sphere of morality, of religion, of decency. It is a burning shame that it should be left to be "political." And how long will our people submit to consign it to the tender mercies of sneaking demagogues? We heartily sympathize with the heartiest contempt for party politics. We hold the duties of woman to be as much above them, as George Washington is above "little Louis Napoleon." But we protest (with a voice of thunder, we would, if we possessed it,) against stigmatizing this tremendous question, by the name "politics."—It should not be, and our Christian and humane community, men and women helping, it shall not be.

We beg that our ladies, whatever else they may think or say, will not confound the simple signature of their names to this remonstrance, with any "Woman's Rights" movement, or imagine that it implies any sympathy with such movement. Cannot they afford to be women and not children, and as such, indulge and express a hearty, honest opinion upon this mighty moral and religious question, without "shivering and shaking," lest they should be identified with "Women's Rights men?" Shame!—shame on such pusillanimity, we say. It is not worthy of our New England women, and we hope, we believe that they will show themselves above it. Let them put the question to themselves, were their own children prospectively to be sold into slavery, would they hesitate and shrink back, and fear that it was not womanly to enter into "politics" so far as to affix their names to a remonstrance? Would they even dream of calling it a "political" question? If they would not, then we meet them with the words of One greater than man, —"As ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them." However far we may be from sympathizing with any such technical movement as has been mentioned, we will maintain one "right," with body and soul, pen, tongue, heart and brain, to the life, to the death,—that of caring for the honor, for the shame of our country, of feeling to the quick, her exaltation and her debasement; and of manifesting that care, and that feeling, if need be, by the simple signature of our name. Women of Bangor, will you join us?

Is there an objection in the minds of any to signing this remonstrance, because they may consider it an undignified, indelicate, unwomanly conspicuosity? (if we may coin a word.) We are aware this objection should not be put into words, and embodied in exact question, for it does not exist in words. It exists as a vague, shadowy feeling,—a feeling that women make themselves in some mysterious manner, cheap, by feeling, and expressing an interest in great moral questions, or public questions of any sort. It is, we are well aware, emphatically unpatient, yea, unlogic, perhaps, to be interested in such matters. Indifference is decidedly "the fashion" among the "upper ten." Heaven defend us from upper tendom in this matter, and give us a comfortable niche among the lower ten-thousand! We leave the "upper ten" to hug their "elegant" indifference and rock it upon the lap of their "elegant leisure," and call upon the latter class to consider, and be ashamed of any such flattering motive as this! To think for their "upper" sisters, and to repudiate it themselves. We surely should consider it undignified to attempt to controvert this pitiable objection in any other way, than by such an appeal.

There are others, perhaps, who may be described by the epithet "exclusive," who care not for fashion particularly, but who regard such action on the part of women as "out of taste," and shrink from defacing the luster of their "taste" in this way. Well, we leave them, too, to hang their "taste" and their refinement to their bosoms, unless they have honest, womanly blood enough in their veins to be ashamed of letting their "taste" swallow up their patriotism, their humanity, and their religion.

There is still another objection very commonly urged. "It will do no good." Well, we confess we have some doubts ourselves, whether or not exclusively ladies' petitions do any good.—(At any rate we consider that a foolish separation, and unnecessary.) The poorly masked sneer which they call, forth on the faces of our courteous public servants, as they "lay them on the table," or kick them under, may be regarded as evidence to the contrary, certainly. But when women's names are honestly and manfully (may we use the term?) mingled with men's; it is a different matter. It shows that they respect themselves, and that men respect them, and our Senators and Representatives will be compelled to do the same, in spite of themselves. Here, again, some of the "shiverers and shakers" may think we would have women's names mingled with mens upon all public occasions, and have them "fight the battle of life" together, as the "Women's rights men" would have them. Be calm, "good friends," we would have no such thing. We would have this done only when our country is in danger of "going to the bottom" of the foul slough of slavery, there to lie and steep in its loathsome corruptions and enormities, or some similar occasion. And then, we would have it done in spite of doubts, about their "doing any good." The question is not one of probabilities. It is, or should be, one of possibilities. "Is it possible," should be the query of every woman, "whether the simple signature of my name will do any good?" If it is, if there is one chance in a million of its doing so, will they make the little sacrifice of inclination, of timidity, of "gentility," of "taste," any such sacrifice involved in the act, for the sake of adding one hair's weight to the chance of saving their country from a doom so unutterable in its degradation, as now hangs over it? They will, at least, acknowledge that it will do no harm, except to their names. Will they risk their precious names, then, for the sake of their country's honor? That is the question. Women of Bangor, will you answer it. Z. Z.

XXXIIId CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday Jan. 31, 1854.

SENATE.

Mr. Foote of Vermont introduced a bill to incorporate the National Pacific Railroad. Referred.

Mr. Clayton called for the correspondence relative to the Sandwich Islands.

The Nebraska bill coming up Mr. Chase asked for a postponement, in order to allow him time to examine more thoroughly into certain historical facts brought forward by Mr. Douglas yesterday.

An extended discussion ensued, when on motion of Mr. Foote the bill was postponed until Friday.

A bill was passed, granting to Wisconsin alternate sections of land for the construction of a railroad.

After an executive session, adjourned.

HOUSE.

In the House this morning, Mr. Richards, from the Committee on Territories, reported the bill organizing Nebraska and Kansas.

Mr. English stated his objections to the Nebraska bill, the chief of which related to the delicate question of slavery. Though a native of a free State, he was willing that all the States of the confederacy should have slavery or not as they pleased, and he desired to extend the same privilege to the territories, giving them the right to decide through the territorial legislatures. He gave notice of an amendment to that effect. A continued discussion ensued on a motion to refer the bill to the Committee of the Whole, when

Mr. Deane of N. Y. (Sof.) gave notice of an amendment as follows

Add to 14th section, "Provided that nothing in this bill contained shall be construed to legislate or establish slavery or involuntary servitude within the territories, or either of them."

The confusion was so great that the Speaker several times suspended all business, until quiet was restored.

The bill was finally referred to the Committee of the Whole. The report of the minority, offered by Mr. English, was ordered to be printed—only one member voting nay.

A bill was passed, ceding to Illinois that part of Cumberland road lying within said State.

Mr. Olds reported a bill to secure the transmission of the United States Mails, having reference to the Erie difficulty. After a discussion, it was referred to the Committee of the Whole. The House then went into Committee of the Deficiency Bill.

For the Whig and Courier.

I love, I love the falling snow
Its feathery flakes so light
Clothing the ground in a robe so white
Dancing so free in the clear sunlight
I love the falling snow.

I love the gentle summer rain
The softly falling shower
Robing in brightness the sunlit bower
Gemming with beauty every flower
I love the summer rain.

I love the fearful thunder's tone
The lightning's vivid flash
The deep peal of the thunder's crash
As the storm winds wildly dash
I love the thunder's tone.

I love to gaze upon the sea
When all around is calm
Or, hear the breaker's wild alarm
Like harbingers of coming harm
I love the mighty sea.

I love to view all nature's work
The rainbow's bright of every hue
The stately mount and valley low
The flowers vie with sparkling dew
I love you love them all,

For the lip of every tiny flower
Throughout the worldly maze
Its sweetest voice doth raise
To sing its Maker's praise
And his Almighty power.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple—in fact he has used it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunderhumors.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its efficacy, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.

One to three bottles will clear the system of blotches or pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure ringing of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure constant and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure the most distressing case of the Salt Rheum.

Two or three bottles warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most deep-rooted case of chronic sore.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst cases of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing on the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is not a fact that if you have a tumor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands, because he has spent it, setting it to one, but not quite. Especially over a thousand of these of us the vicinity of Boston. I know not a feature of it in every case. It has proved to be one of the greatest cured ever used in Massachusetts. I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty. I have seen pure, pasty, worthy looking children, whose flesh was rotting, healthy restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have used it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is rotted it works quite easy, but where there is any deficiency of the functions of nature, it will cause a very unpleasant feeling, but you must not be alarmed—it only additional appetite from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel you are like a new person. I have seen some of the most wilful even grow comparatively mild under its influence.

TESTIMONIALS.

The following certificate from Dr. John C. Warren, of Boston, was given 17 years since, but will not forever.

Boston, Jan. 5, 1833.

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia, have suffered much from the want of a skillful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have often pointed to myself of the kindness of Mr. F. Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr. Heath—After some months of observation of his work, I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the unusual forms of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodation to the variety of cases which occur. I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well skilled to supply their wants in regard to these important articles.

JOHN C. WARREN, M. D.

The undersigned take great pleasure in recommending to the favorable consideration of those who are troubled with Hernia, Mr. James Frederick Foster, as a skillful and competent person to the manufacture and fitting of Trusses. We have employed him (some of us over twenty years) and therefore speak from personal knowledge of his abilities. His early advantages, his long experience in the business, and the large number of the Hospitals whom he has relieved in a variety of cases, render him, in our opinion, quite, if not superior, to any practitioner of the article. His father, Dea. Gideon Foster, of Charlestown, was a maker of the Pepper-box in that town for upwards of twenty four years, during which period Mr. Foster enjoyed a share of the opportunity, and made application of Trusses to a great variety of cases, with great success, some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character.

It is with pleasure we add to this testimonial to wear a Truss, and to great excellence both in the adaptation to the body, at the same time relieving the patient. Any ordinary mechanic may make a Truss, but none but a skilful practitioner can apply it in such a manner as of facility, and often times radically cure a case entirely.

Our experience has convinced us that Mr. Foster has thoroughly attained this knowledge. The certificates of Dr. J. C. Warren, and other eminent surgeons, which he has shown to us, fully sustain the opinion we have expressed.

DR. MORSE'S

Invigorating Cordial,

A

Phenomenon in Medicine.

Health Restored & Strength Given by Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixer, or Cordial.

FOR centuries, Medical science has been practising the veritable Land mineral Kingdoms, to search of something that should possess the first or destroying the seeds of the diseases and, in other systems, without the drawback of subsequent prostration, which all stimulants, in one and narcotics the Sarsaparilla Indian. That something we have found in a vegetable production, brought from the sandy deserts of Arabia the Stony, by the celebrated Professor M. Morse, well known as a distinguished member of the leading scientific societies of the Old World, and recently distinguished as a physician, a chemist and traveller. The process of this acknowledged, concentrated and combined with other vegetable medicinal extracts, and now presenting to suffering humanity in the form of a

Invigorating Cordial,

Invaluable indeed of, in the following cases, viz:

At first the properties introduced by Prof. MORSE IN VIGORATING CORDIAL would seem to be very dubious. The gentle of the disease would not answer the simple and mild remedies now used by the discoverer. But these simple agents, assisted by a masses of the best chalybeate character, are now triumphing over the most obstinate cases of disease, by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistible.

The ELIXIR removes, in all cases, the depressing from a weakness or shock, of the nervous or the settled habits in the wonderful medicinal qualities and powers of the Cordial, which are every day developed with their myriads to compound, scarcely to matter and mind, necessary to the experience of human life. The person of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital nutrition, is recommended on the safe system of nourishing digestive agents which is necessary to fully develop and strengthen the muscular system, and all the natural organs, as well as the higher mental attributes (to note local effects are not confined to other sections of the body). The female, the nursing or for the delicate, enervated mother, the cause of many of human depression, the sufferer from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the wonderful and incomparable restorative. To those who have to perform mental labor, it will prove a complete and lasting safeguard, a shield that to ride steadily. There are many persons, who have been often stifled with these conditions, that they think the case was beyond the reach of medicines. Let not despair in these cases, for the Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to names, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but

REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION.

The derangements of the system leading a periodic diseases and the forms of nervous disease itself, is so numerous that it would require a volume to enumerate the maladies for which the preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, the dolorous, headache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, dyspepsia, debility, nervousness, sinking or sinking sensation in the body, confirmed, torpidity of the liver, general dyspepsia, weakness of the will, indispositions to move, timid nervous affections, broken sleep and trembling of limbs, melancholy, confusion, fluor albus, sinking at the stomach, female irregularities, chronic tendency to miscarriage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic defects the use of medicine.

Whatever the organs to be acted upon, are free from malformation or structure diseases it is assured that

MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR

Will restore weakness with strength incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity and finally wedded Union of sensation with a happy effect on the powers of reproduction. It will mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, find with the nervous system, and that the vivalization of the nerves of motion and sensation is essential each. Bear in mind, then, that for any and all nervous diseases the Elixir Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

No language can convey an adequate idea of its immediate and almost miraculous curative which it exercises in the diseased, debilitated and shattered nervous system, when here broken down by excess, overwrought, or from any cause whatever. It is a strengthening and relaxing organization in its most refined provisions, and to tone. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary, on the contrary the relief is permanent, for the cordial independent of the nerves, really invigorates action itself, and restores it from its wasted condition.

LOSS OF MEMORY,

Consumption, giddiness, rush of blood to the head, melancholy, mental infirmity, hypochondria, disorder of self destruction, fear of insanity, hypochondriasis, dyspepsia, general prostration, irritability, nervousness, inability to sleep, dreamful restless to females, decay of the powers during digestion, hysteria, monomania, sexual excesses, etc., etc., from whatever cause arising it is, if there is any relation to be placed on human testimony, absolutely infallible.

A GREAT MEDICINE FOR FEMALES.

The unequalled influence of this great restorative in all complaints incident to females, make a new epoch in the annals of medicine. Thousands of intimates have been saved from the untimely grave, by the concoction of this purgative to be specified in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate constitution of woman render her liable. The result has been to overcome them. These maladies have in fact imparted a new secretion to the system, to restore vitality, to arouse the digestive organs to the action, to build up and fortify the whole system against future attacks, and to impart a vigor to the nervous system, greater than before, and in the function of the heart, to paralyze the recuperative power of the nerves and the vital organization, and finally to destroy the unhappy patient.

EVERY WOMAN OF SENSE,

who suffers from weakness, derangement, nervous excitement, pain in the back, or any other disorder, which especially to her sex, or common with sister—to give the invigorating Cordial a trial.

MARRIED PERSONS,

or others, will find this Cordial other they have used in boisterous term, a thorough regenerator of the system. In all directions can be for the happy subjects of healthy suffering, who could not have been so, but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally useful for the many diseases for which it is recommended. Thousands of young men have been saved by strength, and not fail a single instance has failed to benefit them.

PERSONS OF PALE COMPLEXION, or consumptive habits are restored by the use of a bottle or two to health and vigor, changing the skin from a pale, sallow, sickly color, to a beautiful flesh complexion.

TO THE MISGUIDED.

Those are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of delicate nervous, pain in the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, universal debility, consumption, &c.

Mental symptoms of the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil fore bodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. All this inflicted should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect beyond dreadful, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

are often misled with respect to the causes and source of diseases in their sons and wards. How often do they suppose, in other causes of wasting of the frame, bloody expectoration, ulceration of the bowels, indigestion, derangement of the nervous system, cough and symptoms indicating consumption, when the truth is, that they have been ingulfing to a pernicious, though alluring practice destructive both to mind and body.

AYER'S PILLS,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as a sure, perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the candid decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient if he was that almost every purgative medicine is carrying pain and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and confusion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which they have been specially cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Inactivity, Bilious Headaches, Bilious Fevers, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver.
